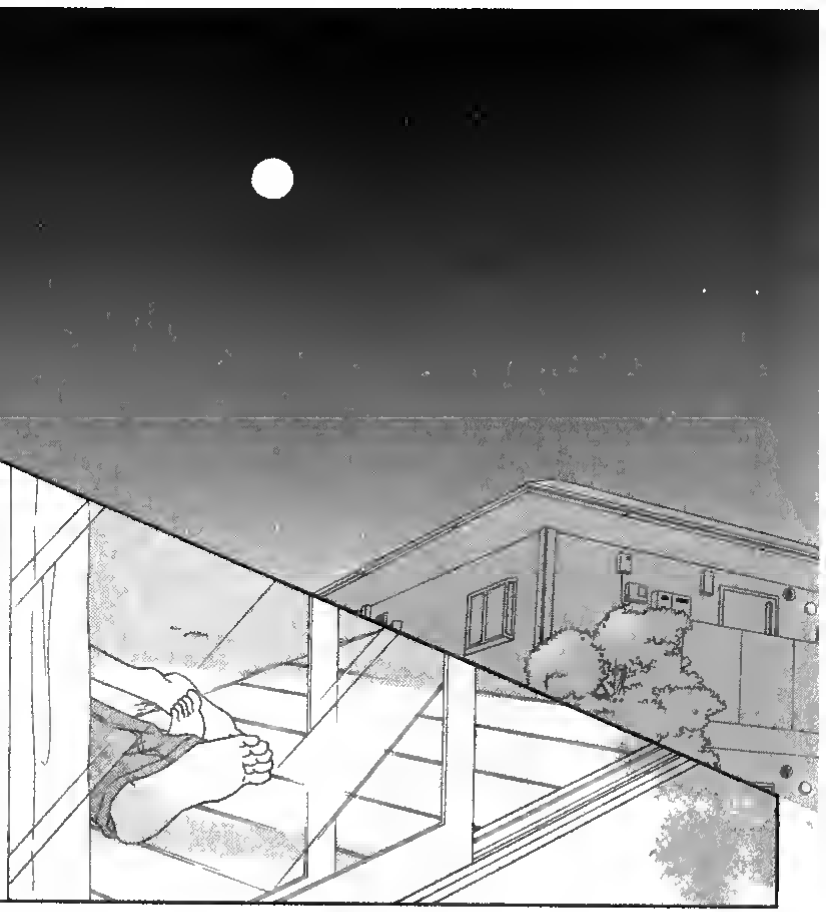
Chapter 10
SEASON ~Moonlight~ Postlude

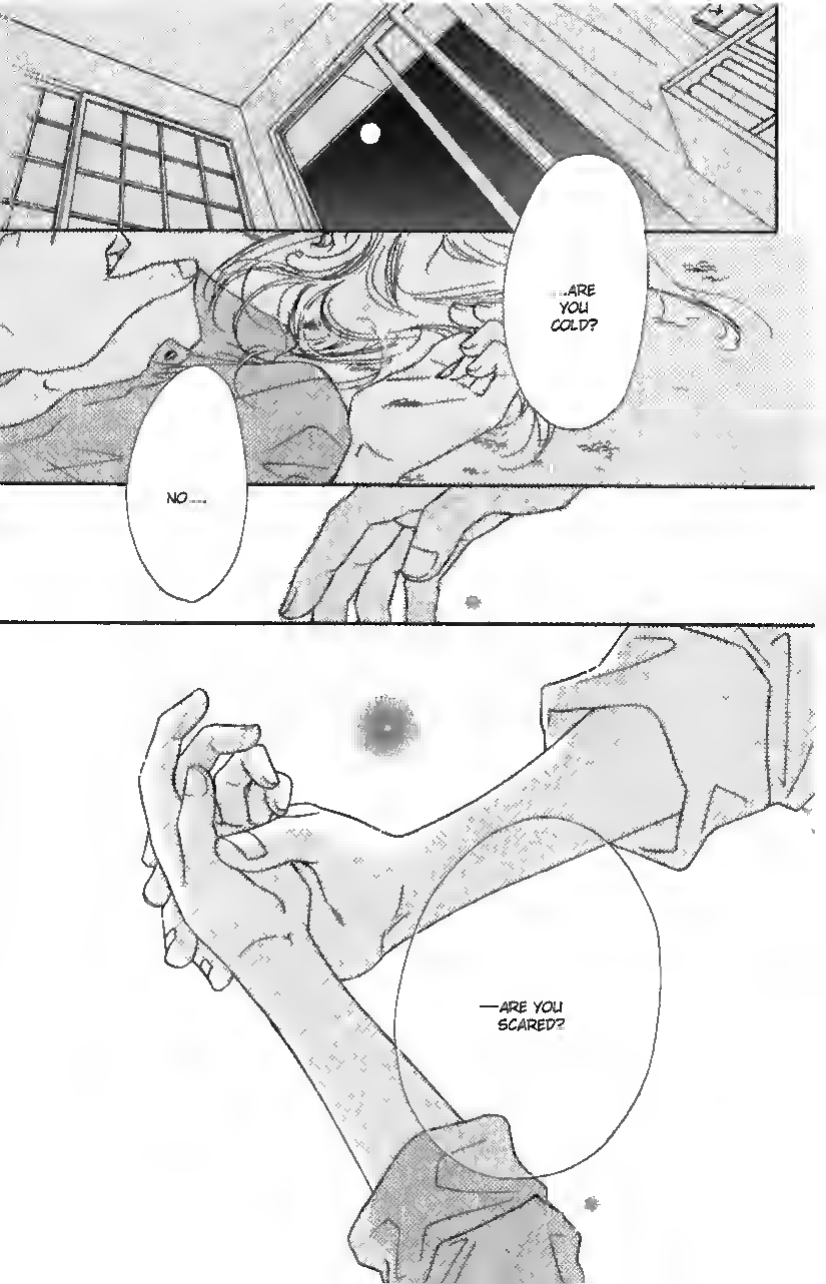
Greetings

Nice to meet you for those who are reading my work for the first time! Thank you for taking into your hand the 6th tanko of Mitsuki Kako.

This is the last volume of "Ai Hime." I'll be very happy if you enjoy this work.



It's finally the last volume of Ai Yori Aoshi...and it's still going the way I wanted at the moment. So thanks for sticking with me.



...ARE YOU COLD?

I thought there'd Finally be a moment when I could draw a scene like this (more like I wanted to!) Being able to draw these two together, I was really happy

Not too smutty, I'd say it's much more interesting with a little smut then how it was before That's how I tried to express it Making it special, with a little bit of fear and seriousness, yet kind all at once so if you can see that side, I'm very happy

(Editor's Note: It's indeed special & very different from the usual smut shoujo I truely preferred all my shoujo to be like this not too much smut scenes instead focus more on the feelings so adorable)

The usual scenerios.

Leaked story

I wonder if the maid-san set has worked. And I leave you to your imagination of what had happened at the bath scene. (lol)

In chapter 11, during the naming (plot development before drawing) process, there was a plan of Jin-nii running(?) into Mao's job site. It was the person in charge who said that simply he'll look cooler in a waiter's appearance but in a reality (even though it's a manga...) he'd be very immature to do so. So it just ended up as an imagination. That's why here he appears as my regret (lol)

But I think he did a lot of part-time work before his hotel job
